Cincinnati, OH: Queen City Skilled Care (QCSC) is pleased to announce that Karen Laycock, RRT, has joined their dynamic team as a Home Care Coordinator. Karen joins the ranks of three other reputable and experienced Home Health Coordinators; Diane Reed RN, Jake Burns and Jami Spivey, RN.

Karen has been successful in the home health care industry since 2007. Before joining Queen City Skilled Care, Karen worked with an agency in the Dayton area, where she was instrumental in significantly increasing patient census, specifically orthopedic patients who need home health care following joint replacement surgery.

Karen began her health career as a Registered Respiratory Therapist in 1984, working for St. Elizabeth Medical Center until 1999. In 2006 Karen went on to work for PRO2 as their Clinical Director. Karen found her true calling in 2007 when she entered the home health care world.

"I truly enjoy educating physicians and patients about the benefits of home health care. Coordinating quality, dependable home health care services is what I enjoy doing," Laycock continued, "I do all I can to guarantee that our patients have a positive home health care experience."

Karen attended Sinclair Community College where she received her degree in Allied Health Sciences with a major in Respiratory Therapy. Karen lives outside of Tipp City with her husband of 34 years. They have 3 children and 2 dogs.

"I am so excited to be working with Queen City Skilled Care, says Laycock, "I know that everyone here is just as passionate and as dedicated to providing the best care for our patients. I am doing what I love at an agency that always comes through for our patients," Laycock continued.

Queen City Skilled Care is a privately - owned home health care agency serving Hamilton, Clermont, Clinton, Warren, Butler, Montgomery, Preble, Greene and Fayette counties. Together the leadership team of Queen City has over 150 years of home health and service- industry experience.
